Drive into the trend of modern office and enjoy the exclusive Ergo's comfortable sitting office experience.

“ERGO”

Creating a comfortable working environment
Comfort and efficiency every day
Creating your smart office experience

Highly breathable mesh cushions serve as the seat contact surface material, keeping you cool and comfortable even in hot weather.

Naturally fit your back curve, effectively enhances the user's sitting feeling and effectively adjusts the human body's healthy sitting posture.

With its dynamic lines, the back support encourages you to change your sitting position during the working process, thus keeping your body energetic and agile.

Ergo's curved back frame shape
Inspired by birds
Gently curve
