The Art of Executive Simplicity

MONDO expresses luxury through proportion, precision, and refined materiality.

Crafted Through Detail

Precision-upholstered leather surfaces create a refined executive seating experience.

Precision Beyond Appearance

Every detail — including the signature leather armrest insert — is designed to enhance both comfort and craftsmanship.

Contemporary Materials,
Timeless Presence

Every finish is selected to enhance
MONDO's clean architectural identity.

Designed for Contemporary Collaborative Spaces

MONDINO adapts effortlessly across executive meeting rooms, collaborative spaces, creative studios, quiet pods, and contemporary private offices.

MONDINO translates the timeless executive character of MONDO into a more compact seating solution designed for modern collaborative environments. Clean proportions, premium upholstery, and refined aluminum detailing create a chair that feels both sophisticated and approachable.

Its architectural simplicity and lightweight presence make it ideal for contemporary workplaces that value flexibility, comfort, and visual clarity.
